IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE SECOND Judicial District of the State of Nevada, in and for the county of Washoe. The State of Nevada sends to John J. LoVette greeting: You are hereby required to appear in an action commenced against you as defendant by Fannie LoVette as plaintiff in the District Court of the Second Judicial District in and for the county of Washoe, State of Nevada, and answer the complaint therein within ten days after the service on you of this summons (exclusive of the day of service), if served in said county, or twenty days if served out of said county, but within said District, and in all other cases forty days, or judgment by default will be taken against you, according to the prayer of said complaint. The said action is brought to recover a decree of divorce between yourself and plaintiff upon the following grounds, viz: that for more than two years last past you have been guilty of violence and profligacy, neglected to provide defendant with the common necessities of life and for the further reason that on or about June 7, 1878, (as plaintiff alleges) you did willfully or without cause desert and abandon her and have ever since continued so to do, all of which will more fully appear from the Complaint which is on file in the office of the Clerk of said Court, at Reno, in said county. And you are further notified that if you fail to appear and answer said complaint, the said plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief demanded.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 31st day of January, A. D. 1881.

THE ASYLUM BILL.

Governor Kinkaid has affixed his signature to the bill providing for the taking care of the insane of the State. A great wrong has been righted. A recapitulation of the State and its people is not necessary at this time. Our readers have been told the tale so often that they know it by heart. There is great satisfaction in the thought that the people's money will no longer be flung to enrich citizens of another State, of recognition of the rights of friends and relations of the insane, and that the State has, in a measure, atoned for the wrongs of the past, by removing the embargo. The JOURNAL is especially pleased because of the location selected for the Asylum, but its local pride does not prevent it from saying that the State lands near Reno was the chosen spot of nearly everyone who expressed an opinion upon the subject. The Washoe delegation in the Legislature are certainly entitled to the thanks of their constituents for their unremitting efforts in impressing upon the members from other counties the imperative necessity of the State building an Asylum at home, and of locating it at Reno. Senator Schooling and Assemblyman Berry are deserving of special mention. They went at their work with a will, and never ceased until it was accomplished. They have been particularly zealous in the discharge of their duties for this town and county. Reno should also bear in kind remembrance Senators Brumsey, Dayton, Doolin, Farrell, Fox, Gallagher, Gibson, Haines, Henderson, Hobart, Kaiser, King, Meder, Perley, Thompson, Tolley, Wheeler, Williams and Westernfield; and in the House such true men as Soule, Eagles, Draxler, Berry, Bradshaw, Copeland, Plank, Ford, Groine, Johnson, Masel, Newell, Richards, Shepard, Shier, Smyth and others. It is not improbable that many of these gentlemen will do her other favors in the future, particularly if the State's trust is not abused in the one just given. The town is on probation, so to speak. It should be a matter of pride for our prominent business men to become interested in the matter of the construction of the Asylum, to aid the Commissioners in caring for the rights of the State, to the end that not a single dollar of the $80,000 appropriated shall be converted to any other use than that specifically named, and under no circumstances allow a "relief" bill to be presented to the next Legislature. Any different state of affairs will lead this writer to believe that his labor for the State and county has been in vain.

BUTTERINE.

A large quantity of Eastern butter is being shipped to the Pacific Coast. This "Eastern butter" is almost exclusively nothing more than "Bull butter," or as it is now politely called "butterine" or "oleomargarine." It is only rendered grease, and much of it taken from the dirty and rotten fatty scrapes from all kinds of dead animals. This grease is melted, the impurities settled off as much as possible, and then it is put through a process of ascetic acid bath, which destroys the nasty taste; and then by coloring and other manipulations it is made to look like and taste something like genuine butter. By recent analysis it has been proven that the compound contains the germs of many diseases, even to tapeworm, which the acid bath is supposed to, but does not, destroy. The nasty stuff is neither fit to eat or cook with; and it is only fit for wagon grease. It ought to be made a felony to make it, or to deal in it, sell it, or knowingly use it. Our legislature cannot make a law too strict or severe against it.

The London Times of March 24th contains a growl at General Grant, in connection with the Nicaragua canal. It says: "This is not the first time that an American public man has lent his name to a doubtful commercial enterprise, and has so helped to give it a start. The Emma mine was introduced to the world under the same kind of auspices as the Nicaragua canal is now. The Emma mine has failed somewhat signally to come up to the promises of its promoters, so that if the Nicaragua canal was to do the same, there would be at least a good President for it."

J. J. O'Kelly, Irish Home Ruler, was formerly Cuban correspondent of the New York Herald, and in that capacity saw the interior of several dungeons. He got out of the clutches of the bloody coxcombs by pleading his privileges as a British subject. Then he returned to New York. The Herald after a time sent him to Ireland to write up the Irish question and write down Parnell, but to the infinite amazement of everybody he took sides with the agitator, and speedily turned up as a Home Rule member of Parliament.

A decision in the Cannon-Campbell mandamus case at Salt Lake city, was reached Thursday by Associate Justice Twiss, who decides that the Court has no jurisdiction over the Governor.

During the recent storm, a man named Taylor, who was at work in Colonel Moody's claim at Gold Run, Placer county, Cal., was washed through one of the double flumes, some 300 feet long, over the dump at the end, eight feet high and down the canyon about 500 feet, but escaped with slight injury.

The Inyan Kara Mountains about forty miles from Deadwood, are said to be undeveloped bonanzas—that oil flows from them continually, which is gathered up by rude processes, and sold to the mills for lubricating purposes. The Deadwood Times believes that the erection of a first-class oil refinery in the hills during the present or coming year is not at all improbable.

King Kalakaua has left his subjects at an opportune time for himself, for advice from Honolulu state that smallpox is raging over the islands to a very alarming extent, and it is feared that the dread scourge is making great ravages among the inhabitants. By the Chinese steamer Mee Foo, official information has been received by the Quarantine Officer from the United States Consul at Honolulu, that already forty cases had been removed to the hospitals, and that the island had been virtually shut off from communication with the outside world.

One of the villages in New Zealand is built on a thin crust of soil roofing over a vast boiler. Hot springs hiss and seethe in every direction—some spouting upward and boiling with the greatest fury, others merely of an agreeable warmth. So thin is the crust on which the people have built their little homes that in most places, after merely thrusting a walking stick into the ground beneath one's feet, steam instantly follows its withdrawal; and the greatest care is necessary in walking among the hot mud-holes and boiling springs.

The heavy vote given in support of the Lottery bill by the Assembly a few days since, indicates either that the Democratic party of Nevada is willing to go on record as being in favor of nullification of our State Constitution, or that a large number of Assemblymen did not know, when they voted for the bill, that it is in direct antagonism to a provision of our Constitution which declares that no lottery shall be authorized by this State, nor shall the sale of lottery tickets be allowed.

Another attempt is to be made to secure an international standard of value for gold and silver. France takes the initiative this time, and has invited the nations of the world to join her in a conference. Consul General Walker of Paris, will represent the United States. Mr. Walker was the agent of the Government for several years in endeavoring to negotiate a monetary treaty with the European Powers.

The Democrats are somewhat unnerved about the health of Senator Grover, who may not be able to attend the executive session which will be commenced on the 4th of March. It is not probable that the Republicans would pair with him on a question of organization, unless one of their own number should be ill. In view of the narrow margin in the Senate, Grover's illness gives the Democrats much concern.

The Enterprise says that a Virginia City man has invented an electrical light lantern. The electricity is generated from a clock work machine in the bottom of the lantern. The machine is wound up like a clock, and the running is stopped and the light extinguished at pleasure by turning a little button. Afraid it is one of Dan De Quille's yarns.

A gentleman, not unknown in literary circles, was present at one of the Pope's receptions. The holy father approached him and said: "You are an American. Are you a Catholic or Protestant?" "Holy father," replied our friend; "I am neither a Catholic nor a Protestant. I am a journalist." His holiness laughed heartily, and moved on to some one else.

The San Francisco Post of Wednesday evening says: John W. Mackay, of the bonanza firm, is on his way back from Europe, and it is said that he carries the control of the Suto Tunnel in his pocket.

At Charlotte, N. C., Wednesday, a baggage-master named Harper and a carpenter named Farrington—both employees of the Atlanta & Charlotte railroad—quarreled and exchanged shots. Harper was killed.

The Times' Atlanta special says: A resident of that city named Farrington threatened to kill his daughter unless she revealed the name of her seducer. He then took the train to Charlotte, N. C., and shot Fred Harper dead on the street.

The North Star hoisting works (belonging to the Manhattan Mining Company) at Austin were destroyed by fire last Wednesday night. Loss $5,000, insured. The fire will not interfere with the operations of the company to any great extent.

Victor Hugo contributed 1,000 francs for the benefit of the amnestied Communists who recently returned to Paris from New Caledonia. The gift was accompanied by the following note: "I have 1,000 francs. I send them to the amnestied. The year should be begun with a thought for those who suffer."

Col. Jerome Bonaparte and his wife are now living in Washington and entertaining a great deal. Mrs. Bonaparte—a great granddaughter of Daniel Webster—is a clever and charming woman. She dresses magnificently, and often wears beautiful jewels, a large share of which descended to her from the late Elizabeth Patterson Bonaparte.

The world is full of disappointments, and no man can tell what a day may bring forth. A few days ago a New Brunswick man purchased a coffin in St. Johns in which to bury his aged grandmother, whom he expected was about to be translated. The old lady recovered and buried her grandson in the same box. There is a sober warning in this.

Irene Worrell, an attaché of the Knight Theatrical Company, was last Monday sued by E. Goodrich, who some years ago secured for her a Utah divorce, for which she had never compensated him. She has set up a claim of "no service rendered," as the divorce has been held to be illegal, and the court and jury took that view of the case, giving a verdict against Goodrich.

Mr. Gladstone fell, Wednesday night, while alighting from his carriage in London striking the back of his head on the carriage step, and cutting it severely. A doctor dressed the wound, and Gladstone was put to bed, and will remain there. Under the most favorable circumstances he will be compelled to abstain from attending the sessions of Parliament for some days.

A new invention is reported from Turin. It consists in the application of light-giving materials to printing ink, by which print becomes luminous in the dark, so that in future it will be possible to read at night, in bed or during a journey, without the assistance of candle or lamp. A new daily paper in which this luminous material will be used is, it is said, about to be published at Turin.

A large number of colored laborers from the South are being brought into Colorado by a contractor to work on the Denver and Rio Grande extensions. It is said that he will bring in about 6,000 during the Spring and Summer. These men are, in the main, old railroad laborers, and will be under contract at $2 per day. It is believed that they will be contented and reliable and give the road a permanent force.

Bradford Era says: Jasper Perley, a Cattaraugus county farmer, nearly froze to death recently. When found, he was insensible in the bottom of his sleigh. He was rubbed with snow and otherwise treated to revive the circulation. After a good deal of thorough manipulation and rubbing, Perley was brought around when a few doses of whiskey sufficed to restore him to nearly his normal condition. He thanked his restorers very heartily, and gave an account of his misfortune, which affords some inkling of the sensations of people who freeze to death: When he felt no longer able to hold the reins with any grip, he determined to seek shelter in the first house until well warmed. His tongue became stiff, then his arms, sharp chills ran down his back, and finally it seemed as though his whole body was being congealed, causing an almost total cessation of the heart's action. The condition of extreme suffering and despondency gave place to a feeling of grateful warmth, suffusing the system and causing an exhilarating glow. By this time he had reached a house, but he drove on, thinking that nothing was now to be feared. The sleigh, instead of crawling along at a snail's pace, appeared to glide through the air with great swiftness and the horses fairly flew like pigeons. A sense of exultation filled the Cattaraugus farmer's breast as he urged the horse to still greater speed, and the woods on either side were passed so quickly that they became indistinguishable black lines. Then the sleigh-bells sounded fainter and fainter, until the chiming disappeared in the distance. The farmer fell gradually into a delicious slumber, which came near being the sleep that knows no waking, and he knew no more until brought back to life under the vigorous treatment.

Missing Vessels.

The agents of the steamship Bristol City, which sailed from New York City for Bristol on December 28th, and which has not been heard from since, fear all hopes of safety must be abandoned. The owners in Bristol think that she may yet reach port. The vessel was commanded by Captain John A. Peters, and a crew of twenty-eight—mostly married men, living near Bristol. She carried no passengers. The cargo consisted principally of provisions. She was an iron vessel, built in 1879, and was known as a water ballast steamer, of 134 tons, 260 feet long, and was owned by C. Hill & Sons, of Bristol, England. The Norwegian bark, Thor, commanded by Captain Thordaldson, which sailed from this port with a cargo of rye for Antwerp, October 3d, not having been heard from fears are entertained that she is lost. She was a wooden vessel, built and owned in Norway.

The Coercion Bill.

In the House of Commons Wednesday, consideration of the Coercion bill was continued in a dilatory manner. Two Home-Rule amendments, intended to introduce the distinct provisions in bill—that prisoners by leniently treated and allowed to associate with each other—were rejected by a majority of 111 and 228 respectively. Forster merely saying that the Government would do its best to prevent hardship. During the debate T. P. O'Connor was warned and Healey silenced by the Speaker, for irrelevancy and repetition. Consideration of the bill was not finished, when the House was obliged to rise, by the rule governing Wednesday's sittings.

White Sulphur Springs.

The Hot Springs, one mile and a half south of Elko, are becoming justly celebrated, not only as a pleasant resort, but for the curative properties of the waters, as can be attested by hundreds of invalids. Those afflicted with rheumatism, and miners who are suffering from the aches and pains accompanying lead disease, have tried these baths and have been permanently cured in a few days' time. One of the springs has a very curious property of tasting like chicken soup. By the addition of a little salt and pepper while hot from the spring, epicures cannot tell it from the genuine article of chicken broth.

A social card party occurred about the first of this week in a gambling booth in a secluded spot five miles from the stage road, between Fort Wingate and Bacon's Springs, New Mexico. Four men entered a saloon and called for a drink; the proprietor stated that he sold no whisky, but if the men wanted to gamble they could, and would be supplied with whisky. The four men then sat down with the proprietor, and after some time spent in playing, a row began, resulting in the death of all of the card-players, each being shot several times. No arrests.

At a California fair last Fall several bottles of strained honey were put on exhibition, when a chap put a bottle of castor oil with the rest. The opinion of all who tried it was that the bee that made it was a fraud.

The new Chinese treaty with America is an ominous one for India. The Chinese government concedes to that of the United States the right to limit or suspend the immigration of Chinese laborers when it considers it essential to do so, but the United States concedes in return that its subjects shall neither import opium into Chinese ports, nor deal in opium when imported. That means that the Chinese government intends to make it a cardinal object of its policy to prohibit foreign opium altogether, which would enable it to establish an internal monopoly, and immensely increase its available revenue. It is sure to press that point at the next opportunity upon England, and will have this argument to put forward—that every other State is allowed to regulate its own taxes, and that India does at this moment prohibit the importation of opium. That argument is most difficult to resist, much more difficult than the teetotal argument, which in China is insincere; and a stoppage of the opium trade, in the circumstances of India, would mean bankruptcy.

When Treasurer Gillilan, at Washington, first suggested the feasibility of exchanging silver certificates for gold bullion and coin, the idea was ridiculed as a good scheme for the Treasury, but it was predicted that holders of gold would never exchange it for paper, good only for scant weight silver dollars. The fact is that owners of gold did accept silver certificates, and the amount of this paper issued in this way at one time ran up to $50,000,000. It is considerably less now, but still applications for exchange continue to be received. An Indianapolis bank recently sent an order for $50,000 worth of certificates in exchange for gold coin.

Colonel Cash, who killed Colonel Shannon in a duel in Charleston, S. C., recently has been indicted for murder.

TOWN AND COUNTY.

For Jabiru, oysters, or mussels, go to Joe's Rotisserie.

Billiards and baked beans at the Oasis Saloon, to-day.

Yesterday was rather too windy for convenience to pedestrians.

To-day and two more days will end the rant month of the year.

Justice Young is in his office ready to attend to business again.

The communication received yesterday from B. is necessarily laid over for a day.

There will be a called communication of Reno Lodge, No. 13 F. & A. M. this evening. Members are requested to meet at 7 o'clock sharp.

Two engines for the Carson and Colorado railroad arrived in Reno Thursday evening, and have been shipped to Carson.

Hagerman has the largest and as fine a lot of groceries at his new store on Commercial Row, as there is in Reno, and equals any in the State.

The quarterly meeting of the M. E. Church at Reno, will be held next Sunday. Elder Carver presiding. Quarterly conference this afternoon.

A new cover, and other repairs are being made to the fire reservoir, near the railroad track, at the corner of Virginia street and Commercial Row.

Judge Rising came down from the hill, Thursday evening, and passed out to Winnemucca to preside over a suit in the District Court, at that place.

There is a man in Reno, who yesterday found a Chinaman's purse and money, and actually returned it all to its owner. Carson can't boast of such honesty.

It is reported that two of the Washoe delegation in the State Assembly, Bailey and Lewers, oppose the proposition for Washoe county to purchase the State Fair property.

A soldier, sentenced to nine months' imprisonment at Fort Alcatraz, for desertion, was brought in from Bidwell yesterday and taken down to San Francisco last evening.

Information is wanted of the whereabouts of John Smith. A large fortune has been left him in the East. Inquire at the law office of Webster and Rankin; or send letter with stamp.

Coroner Dickens has his sign hung out on the east side of Virginia street. His apple depot is now established in the old Farmer's Co-op. store room, corner Virginia and Second streets.

Yesterday afternoon as a Miss Goodwin attempted to get off of the passenger train at the depot she fell to the platform and severely cut her face, besides receiving a heavy shock by the fall; nothing very serious however.

The material for the new paper, about to be started in Reno by Dr. H. Hogan, was shipped from San Francisco last Tuesday, and will probably arrive in Reno to-day. We have not learned what the name of that paper will be.

The case of John Benner charged with purchasing sheep, knowing them to be embezzled from Evans Brothers, is on trial in the District Court. The case is progressing very slowly, and will probably reach over into the middle of next week.

A citizens' meeting is called for this evening, to be held in the Justice Court room to take into consideration the proposition of the county purchasing the State Fair grounds and property, and to confer as to the legislation needed in the premises.

By reference to our fifty-cent column it will be seen that Mrs. L. Savage will sell her residence on the corner of Fourth and Chestnut streets, Reno, Nevada. The lot is about 100x145 feet, and the house large and commodious. There is a bargain for somebody.

The tears flowed anew in Carson Thursday, and the flood has not entirely abated yet, over the approval by the Governor of the Insane Asylum bill. The streets of that abused little village are almost impassable on account of the mud and slush occasioned by the briny torrent.

It is reported in Carson that a bill is to be introduced in the Legislature to make Mt. St. Mary's Academy, in Reno, a branch of the State University, and that the appropriations be distributed equally between the institution at this place and that at Elko. We would suggest that Bishop Whittaker's School for Girls, and the Reno public school also be included as branches; that is, if the Carsonites have no objection.

Impecuniosity.

Carson has engineered a bill through the Legislature to be allowed the use of State prison convict labor to dig a ditch to convey water into their cemetery, in order to water and beautify the grounds of their dead. Another fraud upon the State, and a willful act of bringing cheap convict labor into competition with free, honest, white labor, and yet, Carson is not satisfied. They now demand of the Legislature to be allowed the use of convict labor to build a nice board fence clear around the village, and have them paint it black. The next thing that they, probably, will demand will be for the Legislature to establish a free lunch stand in Capital Square, and employ convict labor to do the cooking, and wait upon the impecunious Carsonites at the tables. They must have something more.

Query.

Now that the school tax question has been settled by an election in favor of keeping the school running it is a question with us what the late election really amounted to. There can be no tax raised or paid, except at the time and in the manner that all other taxes are. Would it not have been just as well, and would it not be better now, for the Commissioners to disregard the election and simply raise the rate of the school tax high enough to fully pay for the next year's and this year's school expenses, including the present deficiency? There then can be no question of its legality, nor bucking by those who were opposed to raising the tax, at the last school election.

Industrial School.

We suggest, Carson concurring, the propriety of the present Legislature to provide an Industrial or Reform School, for youngsters under a certain age, or persons of any age, in the discretion of the court, who commit felonies, and who may be susceptible of reformation. The State needs some such institution besides the State Prison. Such an institution can be established on the State property at Reno, and at this time, can be created in connection with the new Insane Asylum, with but very little extra cost. Will Carson concur?

Measles and Crime

W. C. Haight, the man who was taken off the cars at this place, several days ago, afflicted with the measles, has fully recovered. He was a prisoner being brought back from the east on a requisition from California for a felony committed at Bodie. Since his recovery from the measles he has been in jail awaiting the arrival of a California officer to conduct him to his destination. Detective P. Davis will arrive in Reno this morning for the man, and leave on the lightning for Bodie.

Railroad Accident.

As the overland express train, drawn by two engines, neared the summit last Thursday night, it was met by a runaway flat-car and a collision occurred. Both engines jumped the rails, turning side by side across the track. No one was hurt except engineer Kelley, who got a few slight cuts in the face and a tooth knocked out. The accident delayed the trains about nine hours. The overland express and lightning trains arrived at Reno about 4 o'clock P. M.

The S. F. Daily Report says: Reno, Nev., has at last secured the Insane Asylum. We are glad of this because Reno is a live enterprising little town with plenty of public spirit. Its newspapers have always worked stoutly and intelligently for its interests and deserves much of the credit due for its success. We hope the State Prison and the Capitol will in due time be in Reno. Carson belongs to a departed era.

Above the Clouds.

The theater was well filled Thursday evening to see and hear the Amateurs play "Above the Clouds." We learn from those who were there, that they did very well for non-professionals, especially the lady members of the show, who far excelled the masculine gender in their acting. Well, they always do.

Our people should not forget when they go to the city, to call on Uncle Harris. We hear of a great many people being victimized in numerous dens in San Francisco, that call themselves by different names—such as Uncle's, Uncle this and that. Our citizens should be sure and take a little pains, and see that when purchasing that they read the name of Uncle Harris on the windows and in the store, No. 221 Kearney street, between Bush and Sutter.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS
FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC, CURING

Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach and Breath, Headache, Erysipelas, Piles, Rheumatism, Eruptions and Skin Diseases, Biliousness, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Tetter, Tumors and Salt Rhum, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, as a Dinner Pill, and purifying the blood, are the most congenial purgative ever perfected. Their effects abundantly show how much they excel all other Pills. They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. They purge out the foul humors of the blood; they stimulate the sluggish or disordered organs into action; and they impart health and tone to the whole being. They cure not only the every day complaints of everybody, but formidable and dangerous diseases. Most skillful physicians, most eminent clergymen, and our best citizens, send certificates of cures performed, and of great benefits derived from these Pills. They are the safest and best physic for children, because mild as well as effectual. Being sugar coated, they are easy to take; and being purely vegetable, they are entirely harmless.
